Subject : Appreciation letter for the NSS students of Sterling College of Arts Commerce and Science

We at Shikhar Youth Foundation express our heartfelt Gratitude towards the NSS students of Sterling College to join hands with us for our "Har Ghar Diya Project". This project is conducted by us every year before Diwali where raw Diyas are given to the tribal (Adivasi) Women of Plaghar District, these Diyas are then beautifully hand painted by them. We bring the diyas and sell it to various colleges, societies, exhibition centers in Mumbai later the sales proceeds are distributed among the women to make their Diwali a special one.

The NSS unit of Sterling College of Arts Commerce and Science have been in collaboration with us for this activity and the volunteers of NSS have been very helpful in selling the Diyas painted by the tribal women. Their participation has definitely helped us in empowering many women in the palghar district and help them generate seasonal income.

This year Sterling college has helped us sale almost 279 packets of Diyas which helped in generating a revenue of Rs.27900. We deeply thank the organization the NSS department and specially the NSS Volunteers for supporting us and helping us achieve our goal of women empowerment. We wish to continue this association in our future endeavors also.

Thanking you in anticipation.

NOTICE

All the Students and faculty members are hereby informed that NSS Unit has planned to start old and unutilised Book Donation Drive (under Arpan Mandir Project). Under this project NSS Unit will collect and donate books to poor and needy students. NSS Unit requests teachers and students to donate their previous class and unutilised books. Through this project we shall try to promote the environmental protection because books shall be used again and again by many students and there will be less usage of papers to publish new books and there will be help to needy students as well. We further request you to donate your books for social cause.

Report

Title of the Activity: Book Donation Drive (under Arpan Mandir Project)

Date of Commencement: 01/07/2022

Venue: College Premises (NSS Room)

Objective: To promote the environmental protection and help the needy students.

Outcome of the Program: NSS Unit of Sterling College commenced this project in the month of July 2022. The students and teachers were requested to donate their previous class and unutilised books. NSS volunteers were given the responsibility to collect the books and identify the needy students to be donated the books. Faculty members, NSS Volunteers and other students donated their books to the NSS Unit and then the Unit donated books to the needy students.

Feedback: Students as well as parents liked this project very much and requested NSS Unit to run this project on regular basis. At the end of the year this project was presented before the NSS Cell of University of Mumbai during scrutiny session and final meeting of NSS Navi Mumbai Zone which was highly appreciated by Coordinator of NSS Cell, District Coordinator and Area Coordinator of Navi Mumbai District. The professors of other colleges came to know about this project they also promised to donate their books.

Participation: There were 30 NSS volunteers who actively participated in this project.
