NATIONAL CENTRE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT

National Centre for Rural Development (NCRD) Pune, is an organization registered under Society's Registration Act 1860 & Bombay Public Trust Act 1950. The trust was established in the year 1991 with a mission of Rural Development. The trust realized that in order to develop rural area it is very much important to create educational facilities for rural population

Therefore, a school was started during the year 1994 in Ambegaon Taluka of Pune district to provide basic education to the rural children. Ambegaon Taluka during that period was undeveloped and was rural based. The Taluka, in spite of being close to the industrial area of Pimpri – Chinchwad, remained industrially backward due to restrictions on establishing industrial units in the proximity of the Giant Meterwave Radio Telescope (GMRT) set up in the area. Hence farming was the only source of livelihood of this area. Even to make agriculture profitable and economically viable, quality education is essential. Hence NCRD gradually started more number of schools in the hilly areas of the Taluka to facilitate easy access to education for the rural children.

NCRD gradually expended its horizon and entered in the field of higher education in satellite city of Navi Mumbai with undergraduate courses in commerce & Pharmacy and post graduate courses in management & commerce. NCRD presently imparting education to more than 11000 students from K.G. to P.G. through it's various institutions located in Pune district and Navi Mumbai(Nerul).
